The Family Funeral Service

In August 1907 Arthur William Lymn conducted his first funeral and the undertakers originally trading as A. W. Lymn and now known as A. W. Lymn The Family Funeral Service was formed. Since then the business has continued to maintain the founders vision of placing the emphasis on quality of service and the meeting of clients needs rather than striving solely for profit.

We are very conscious of the difficulties you may be experiencing following the loss of a baby or a child and have tried to produce this take away booklet to enable you to look through the options available, in the comfort of your own home, before making any final arrangements. We have two members of staff, Teresa Spencer at our Ruddington office and Kirsty Payne at our Arnold office, who both have specialist knowledge and training and are happy to give you full advice and assistance when making the funeral arrangements. However, please feel free to contact your local office from the list on the back cover should you prefer.

Payment Terms

Our services are supplied at a greatly reduced price, and as the invoice relates to these charges and third party disbursements we require payment of the full estimated costs in advance of the funeral date.

When a DWP claim is being submitted the above ruling will only be relaxed when:

a. The completed SF200 is reviewed by A.W. Lymn The Family Funeral Service and

b. It appears to our representative that the claim is valid.

BUT, payment of all amounts not covered by the DWP claim would still be expected in advance of the funeral date.

When paying by credit card a 1% surcharge will be added to the disbursements.

Little One

*I close my eyes; still feel you there, just my little one and me.
Our hearts in tune, both intertwined, our union so complete.
A movement here, a murmur there, your way of saying 'Hi';
I stop and pause, wait for more . . . Can't hide my radiant smile.*

*I see your face, it matters not, your face I'll never see.
I hear your voice, a joyous tone of merriment and glee.
Our daytime chats just fill my time; we speak of plans and schemes, of nursery rhymes and playground times and holidays by the sea.*

*I'm alone, I like it here. 'Cos then it's you and me.
No distractions or interactions to disrupt my memories.
I sing to you my favourite tunes, as I do the daytime chores.
I'm always near, my guiding hand, gently clutching yours.*

*You comfort me, no need to share, the reasons I am sad.
Your thoughts are mine; I'm in your shoes, what journeys we'd have had!
I'll never know your loving touch but you touched my heart and soul.
I'll never gaze into your eyes; I'll never quite be whole . . .*

*You've left me now but you're still here; you're mine and I am proud.
This cherished love encases me; I speak your name out loud.
We're side by side, arm in arm, destiny unknown; we'll share our secrets, swear our loyalties and never be alone . . .*

*You are in my spirit, sweet child of mine, your reservation made.
Your portrait hangs inside my soul, to dull my aching pain.
I'm always here, to reminisce, wherever you may rest.
Sleep now, my little one, my friend, my love, my own, my best . . .*
